Luhrmann's visual style reinforces this almost kaleidoscopic, constantly shifting view of who Elvis was and is, making "Elvis" the film into a swirling, glittering, often dizzying view of the singer's

'elvis' is an over-the-top dazzler

As Elvis hits cinemas, let's revisit the Australian director's oeuvre and remember what makes him one of the shiniest directors in Hollywood.

luhrmann on the job: the best of baz

Elvis' longtime manager Col. Parker plays an oversized role, but that's not this film's only problem. There may be a great movie hiding in Elvis, but it's buried under an awful lot of visual clutter.

baz luhrmann's gaudy 'elvis' is a shapeless blur of a musical biopic

OPINION: Watching a Baz Luhrmann film is like getting in the car of a morning, switching on the ignition and having the stereo blast out the speakers at full volume. The only diff
